

Santa Clara University Student Work Distribution Permission for Open Educational Resources

Open Educational Resources (OER) are openly licensed educational materials that permit learners to retain, reuse, revise, remix, and redistribute materials. Through such permissions, students are able to contribute to OER and participate in learning as co-creators of knowledge with their peers and professors. This form details your copyrights as a student and serves as a written release to share your work, to be identified with your work, and to license your work.

Consent to share work

U.S. Copyright Law \(17 USC, Sec. 106\) provides copyright protection for any work by an author, including students' papers and/or projects. FERPA \(Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act, 34 CFR Part 99\) prevents an institution from disclosing or publishing student work without prior written consent. The Intellectual Property Policy for Santa Clara University (SCU) states that copyright remains with the creator except under certain circumstances.

Instructors must request written permission from the student author prior to distributing student work, including in OER. Your decision to share your work is completely voluntary and will not impact your grade. Additionally, you have the right to protect your privacy by not sharing your work or sharing your work anonymously.

Sharing

- I agree to share my work and be identified
- I wish to share my work anonymously
- I do NOT wish to share my work

License (optional)

Creative Commons (CC) is a non-profit organization devoted to expanding the range of creative works available for others to legally share and use through copyright licenses, known as Creative Commons licenses. These licenses allow creators/authors to communicate a range of rights reserved and waived for the benefit of recipients or other creators. By assigning one of the licenses below, you are expressing permission for your work to be shared and re-used, subject to the limitations of the license selected.

For more information, please see <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/>. Please note that if indicated that you wish to share your work anonymously above, attribution is waived.

If you choose to share your work, read the following information and select a license. If you choose NOT to share your work, do not select a license.

Creative Commons Attribution \(CC-BY\); This license lets others distribute, remix, adapt, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation.

Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial \(CC-BY-NC\); This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work non-commercially.

Creative Commons Attribution ShareAlike \(CC-BY-SA\); This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work even for commercial purposes, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. All new works based on yours will carry the same license.

Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial ShareAlike \(CC-BY-NC-SA\); This license lets others remix, adapt, and build upon your work non-commercially, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms.

Creative Commons Attribution No Derivatives \(CC-BY-ND\); This license lets others reuse the work for any purpose, including commercially; however, it cannot be shared with others in adapted form, and credit must be provided to you.

Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives \(CC-BY-NC-ND\); This license is the most restrictive of the six main licenses, only allowing others to download your works and share them with others as long as they credit you, but they can't change them in any way or use them commercially.
